

Don't skip the sunscreen

protect your skin

- 1 in 5 Americans will develop skin cancer in their lifetime
- The main cause of skin cancer is exposure to the sun's harmful ultraviolet (UV) rays
- UV exposure is the strongest between 10 am and 3 pm
- Dermatologists recommend wearing a minimum of SPF 30 for daily activities

